3. ORAL SKILLS (30 MARKS)

a) Read the oral narrative below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, a woman who was pregnant and about to give birth went to the bush to collect firewood. On reaching the bush, she suddenly gave birth to a baby boy who was so deformed and ugly that she decided to exchange it for another baby; a handsome normal-looking one she found abandoned and crying in a nearby thicket. She didn't know that this baby was a spirit called Ekiye by the Turkana.

The woman returned home with the baby and since it was evening time, she had to milk the cows. As usual, she took three gourds and filled them with milk from their numerous cows. She put the milk containers in her hut where her eldest daughter was minding the new-born baby. Then she went out again to complete some of her other chores.

Later, when she returned to the hut where she had left the baby, she found to her dismay, that there was no milk at all. All the three gourds were empty. Surprised and shocked, she questioned her daughter about the milk and what had happened to it. The girl replied:

“The baby has drunk it all”.

“I can't believe such a tale. It's ridiculous for you to say such a thing.” She scolded her daughter.

“Don't tell lies. Admit you are just imagining things. Who drank the milk?”

The woman persisted in questioning her daughter who swore it was the baby.

Strange as it may sound to you, the same thing happened again the following day and several consecutive days. The woman grew puzzled and confused. Her husband too began to complain about the non - availability of milk in the household. Now, the woman had no alternative but to tell him the truth.
