

101/3

ENGLISH

Q. 1 Imaginative Composition

Write a composition of between 300 and 400 words to illustrate the proverb: “Better the devil you know than the angel you don’t know.

Or

Write a composition beginning with”From a distance, I knew all was not well.....”

Q 2 COMPULSORY SET TEXT.

20mks*Tso*

Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye: Coming to Birth

“According to the Luo expression, the country was eating its people. “Discuss this statement with specific illustrations from the novel.

Q 3 THE OPTIONAL SET TEXTS

Answer any ONE of the following three questions.

20mks*Tso*

a) Either

Imagine you are Amina Ndamba’s sister in Fatmata conteth’s story “Letter to my sisters” and you intend to make the people in your community know the type of person she was.

Write an eulogy to read at her funeral

Or

b) Discuss the appropriateness of Ruganda’s use of the style of apostrophe in Shreds of Tenderness.

Or

Imagine you’ve gone to overseas and you meet a friend who is considering an African man for a husband. Using what Brenda does in Homestretch as a guideline to your answer, discuss the advantages and disadvantages of this as you attempt to advice your friend.