

FORM 2
HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT
END TERM EXAMS- MARCH 2016
TIME: 2HRS

SECTION A (25MKS)

1. State four disadvantages of Archaeology as a source of information in History and Government (4mks)
2. Give three physical characteristics of Homo erectus (3mks)
3. Identify three similarities between early agriculture in Mesopotamia and Egypt (3mks)
4. Identify four methods in which long distance traders used to acquire slaves during the 19th c in Kenya (3mks)
5. Identify the methods of trade in Africa (2mks)
6. State four uses of the wheel in Europe (4mks)
7. Identify three early sources of energy (3mks)
8. State two theories that explain the origin of iron working in Africa (2mks)

SECTION B (45MKS)

- 9a) State five benefits that resulted from domestication of animals (5mks)
- b) Describe the social organization of the Ameru in the 19th C. (10mks)
- 10a) State three negative impact of the Trans-Saharan trade (3mks)
- b) Explain six factors that facilitated the spread of iron working in Africa (10mks)
- 11a) State five advantages of animal transport (5mks)
- b) Explain factors that facilitated industrialization in Britain (10mks)

SECTION C (30MKS)

- 12a) Give two ways of becoming a Kenyan citizen (2mks)
- b) Identify five levels of conflict in a society (5mks)
- c) Explain four importance of National Integration (8mks)
- 13a) State five reasons that delayed industrialization in continental Europe (5mks)
- b) Explain five importance of television as a means of communication (10mks)