OUESTION ONE

Country Y has a fast growing economy. Various government ministries and state corporations in the country are (a) currently engaged in a number of capital projects. The country recently developed an electronic project monitoring information system (e-ProMIS) to capture information on projects implemented by the ministries, state corporations and counties. As a result, all government organisations were required to upload their projects in the system and update them regularly.

Required:

Discuss four specific objectives that Country Y might realise from the e-ProMIS.

(8 marks)

Over the last few years, Country Z's rising public debt has been a point of discussion in most macroeconomic outlook (b) discussions, with organisations such as the World Bank and global rating agencies raising concerns.

Discuss three measures that the government of Country Z could take to reverse the above trend.

(6 marks)

Explain three objectives of tax modernisation programmes which have been recently undertaken in a number of (c) (6 marks) developing economies.
